Do Not Sell or Share My Personal Information / Opt-Out of Targeted Advertising Request Form

Depending on your state of residence, you may have certain choices regarding how we use and share your personal information. If you are a resident of California or Virginia, you may have the right to opt out of the sale of your personal information or the sharing of your personal information for cross-context behavioral advertising. You also may have the right to opt out of the processing of your personal information for targeted advertising purposes.

We do not sell your personal information in exchange for monetary compensation. We may, however, share your personal information with certain third parties (such as online advertising services) or allow them to collect personal information via automated technologies on our websites and apps for cross-context behavioral advertising purposes. Part B. Your Opt-Out Request

Depending on your state of residence, you may have the right to opt out of the sale, certain sharing, or processing of your personal information for targeted advertising purposes that involves personal information. We offer you certain choices with respect to opting-out of our use of your personal information in this manner.

1. Opt-out of Interest-based Advertising: We and our advertising partners participate in advertising, marketing and analytics programs to deliver more relevant, interest-based advertisements to you. These programs involve the collection and sharing of your personal information (such as through cookies and pixels) when you visit our website from which we may derive value (such as an enhanced ability to serve you more relevant ads). To learn more about the information collected, used, and disclosed for these interest-based advertising purposes, please see the interest-based advertising section of our Global Privacy Notice. You may opt-out of the disclosure of your information for interest-based advertising purposes as described in our Global Privacy Notice. Please understand that we will still share your information in ways that are not a sale, or sharing for cross-context behavioral advertising or targeted advertising such as with our service providers, for our own online advertising purposes.

Your opt-out will be specific to the web browser or device you use at the time you exercise your opt-out rights; if you use multiple web browsers or devices, you will need to opt-out from each browser and device. Even if you opt out, you may still see ads for Tiffany, although they may not be personalized to you.
